

Rodger Jones of McKinney, Texas, passed away November 8, 2024, at the age of 71. He was born on January 26, 1953, in Raymondville, Texas, to Bennie Frank Jones and Lois June Mays.

Rodger graduated from Richardson High School in 1971 and went on to earn his degree in Business Administration from North Texas University in 1976. Following college, he was employed in the insurance industry at Reliance, MOAC, A&A, AON, MHBT and Marsh McLennan for over 40 years. He was well respected and well liked by his coworkers and colleagues.

Following college, he met the love of his life, Deborah Clarkson, and they were married on April 2, 1977, in Dallas, Texas. Rodger had a deep love for golf, classic cars, Dallas Cowboys, and exploring the world with his wife.

His extensive travel included over 40 overseas trips with favorites being African Safaris and two trips to Antarctica. Most importantly, though, he treasured spending time with his friends and family, always making them a priority in his life.

He is survived by his wife, Deborah Jones of McKinney, Texas; sister, Rhonda Sanderfer and brother-in-law, Michael of Pottsboro, Texas; and brother-in-law, Charles Clarkson and his wife, Cheryl and their two children, Charles and Katherine.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Bennie and Lois Jones, and his brother, Russell Jones.

Funeral services will be conducted at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, November 21, 2024, at Stonebriar Community Church in Frisco, Texas. In lieu of flowers, donations to Wounded Warrior Project would please Rodger.
